Product Description

Product Description

6oz/12oz/300ml Empty Plastic Glue Cartridge Heat Conduction Red Glue Dispensing Hose Syringe Barrel

6oz syringe

It is suitable for the emergence of red glue and solder paste syringe process to replace the problems of virtual soldering and leakage caused by traditional printing process of SMT patch red glue and solder paste, which greatly improves the high productivity and yield of customers, and improves customer production and management. Efficiency increases revenue and reduces expenditure, and you can sit back and relax. * The imported food-grade raw material formula does not add any lubricants, mold release agents, antistatic agents, and the original flavor ensures that your glue quality is stable, green, environmentally friendly, and healthy.

* High temperature resistance of 100 degrees, low temperature resistance of -40 degrees, pressure resistance of more than 6.5 kg. * The barrel has no taper and the piston is perfectly matched without rebound, smooth and clean, and there is no residue on the squeegee.

12oz syringe

* The needle barrel adopts new raw materials, so that the cylinder body and the piston cooperate more perfectly and the squeegee is cleaner and free of residues. * The special cold-resistant and explosion-proof material does not burst the pipe during the dispensing operation, ensuring that it will not crack during transportation and low-temperature storage, which solves the long-standing cracking phenomenon. * Syringe barrels are available in various colors, and you can choose different colors for different liquids, and you can also customize the color you want.
